

RICH MEN HELD AS CROOKS WILL SUE THE POLICE

Harbaughs, Quickly Discharged, Are to Demand Adequate Reparation.

The two energetic sleuths of Inspector Grant's staff—Hoagland and Curtis—who arrested one of Brooklyn's best known real estate agents and a brother from Baltimore, declaring they knew the men to be Chicago crooks, to-day made a weak attempt to cover their blunder when they told Magistrate Tigue in the Coney Island Police Court that they had no charge to make.

When the victims of the outrage, Francis Parvin Harbaugh, president of the Inter-city Realty Company, and his brother John were discharged, their attorney, William McKenney, wanted to hold an examination to ascertain what ground the two detectives had for holding the Harbaughs as suspicious persons. This was not granted.

F. P. Harbaugh then went to Deputy Commissioner O'Keefe and filed charges against Sergeant Hammond, who was on duty at the Coney Island station when the men were brought in. Harbaugh said the sergeant refused to send for bail and offered other discourtesies. He will also sue the city and ask the dismissal of the two detectives.

It is said by Capt. Harbina to have helped identify the two men as crooks. The Harbaughs intend to leave no stone unturned to get reparation.

They went to the island last night, and had just begun to have a good time when the detectives arrested them. It took the police a long time to discover their mistake, and when the prisoners were turned loose they had little time left for merrymaking.

Say They Were Told.
Detectives Hoagland and Collins, of Inspector Grant's staff, who have been assigned to look out for crooks at the Mardi Gras, are responsible for this blunder. They say that the private detective gave them a description of two well-known Western crooks he had seen at the island.

Their pedigrees were given as follows: Francis Parvin Harbaugh, forty-seven years old, President Inter-city Realty Company, No. 715 Temple Bar Building, Brooklyn, residence 136 Stratford Road, Prospect Park South, and John Harbaugh, thirty-six years old, manufacturer of harness at No. 184 Ramsey street, Baltimore.

Mr. Francis Harbaugh said he had a telephone at his home and the police could easily establish his identity. The police refused to do so, even after his pockets were searched and letters bearing his business address, newspaper clippings and other papers established his business connections.

Rich Harbaugh Brothers Who Will Sue the Police

Treated Outrageously.
John Harbaugh said to-day that they would report the matter to Deputy Commissioner O'Keefe in addition to proceeding against the detectives personally.

"We were treated outrageously," he continued, "I was put in a cell alone, but my brother was looked up with two drunks. The detectives said they knew us of old and suggested that we would get away easier if we confessed. They would not even let us establish our identity, retaining us merely to see those who would vouch for us."

Francis Parvin Harbaugh lives at Prospect Park South. His home is one of the finest there. His fortune is estimated at $250,000.

POLICE CHIEF DISMISSED.
ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 20.—Matthew Kieley, Chief of Police, who has been on trial before the Police Commission on charges of neglect of duty, was dismissed from the department last night.

FOUR MEN ROB WHITE WIFE OF CHINAMAN.

Mrs. Lee Identifies Two Caught by the Police as Her Assaultants.

William T. King, of No. 607 Tenth avenue, and Robert Ferrill, of No. 651 Eighth avenue, Long Island City, were arraigned before Magistrate Smith to-day on a charge of assault preferred by Fannie Lee, the white wife of a prosperous Chinese farmer, Jim Lee, who raises vegetables on a plot in Ditmars avenue. Two other men were implicated in the assault.

The Lee house is remote from other residences. Yesterday when four men appeared representing that they were detectives forced admission. A Chinese laborer on the farm tried to help Mrs. Lee, but had to flee for his life. The woman finally escaped, and when she returned with assistance discovered the men had stolen $100. She has positively identified King and Ferrill.

Doing Everything Right

at all times leads to success. We point to the steady march of progress that this store has made from the very date of its birth in April, 1872.

We started out right—determined to give our public the best end of the stick—a square deal—at all times. We've always done that, are doing it to-day and will do it to-morrow and every day thereafter—and we'll keep on growing and growing.

A bargain is a bargain here—we don't say a thing is a bargain when it isn't; when it is we don't hide the fact under a bushel—we tell you about it. Sometimes, maybe, you may think we put the news too strongly—but we don't, take our word for that, or better still, come see for yourself.
